A Cash Offer.
The Kentuckian has made a special clubbing rate with The Memphis Weekly Commercial Appeal by which we will furnish both papers for one year for the very low subscription price of $2.25. The Commercial Appeal is one of the largest and best papers in the South, and we hope to receive many new subscriptions on this offer; $2.25 cash for both papers.

Heart is Best Guide.
The man who offers sympathy to a neighbor and who comforts him in time of trouble can afford to run the risk of being accused of not minding his own business. An act of genuine kindness is readily distinguished from intermeddling. The heart is sometimes a better guide for action than the head.

Stung.
Peter Piper had picked a Peck of Pickled Peppers. The bell rang. "A Peck of Pickled Peppers distanced at the post!" shouted the announcer through his megaphone. Peter Piper tore his hair. "Never again!" he cried, meaning that he meant to dally with the ponies no more forever.—Puck.

EVER WATCHFUL
A Little Care Will Save Many Hopkinsville Readers Future Trouble.

Watch the kidney secretions. See that they have the amber hue of health; The discharges not excessive or infrequent; Contain no "brick-dust like" sediment. Doan's Kidney Pills will do this for you.

They watch the kidneys and cure them when they're sick. Mrs. Francis Brown, 204 Fourth St., Hopkinsville, Ky., says: "There is no doubt about Doan's Kidney Pills living up to the claims made for them and you are at liberty to use my name as one who recommends them highly. I was annoyed for years by backache which came on by spells, especially severe if I contracted a cold. About four years ago I was induced to try Doan's Kidney Pills and was not disappointed with the results. After taking a dose or two I knew that this remedy was acting directly on my kidneys and in a short time my trouble ceased. During the past four years I have used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at Johnson & Co.'s Drug Store, when having similar attacks and in every instance they have given me prompt relief. We think a great deal of Doan's Kidney Pills and always keep them in the house."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Flattery.
Jones—"The biggest idiots always do marry the prettiest women." Mrs. Jones—"Now you're trying to flatter me!"

She Was Not Surprised.
"Weren't you sorry when you heard that Tolstol was dead?" asked Mrs. Oldcastle. "Yes," replied her hostess, as she pushed a $900 bracelet up on her left arm, "but it was not at all surprisin'. Folks that go up in them things are always sure to get a fall sooner or later."

WARFARE NOW LESS DEADLY
Losses in Battle Reduced, Though Implements Used Are Far More Deadly.

War itself, the old red anarchy, is passing. It is safer to be a soldier than a workingman. The chance for life is greater in an active campaign than in a factory or a coal mine. In the matter of killing, war is growing impotent, and this in face of the fact that the machinery of war was never so expensive in the past nor so dreadful, writes Jack London, in The Forum.

War equipment today, in time of peace, is more expensive than of old in time of war. A standing army costs more to maintain than it used to cost to conquer an empire. It is more expensive to be ready to kill than it used to be to do the killing. The price of a dreadnought would furnish the whole army of Xerxes with killing weapons. And, in spite of its magnificent equipment, war no longer kills as it used to when its methods were simpler. A bombardment by a modern fleet has been known to result in the killing of one mule.

The casualties of a twentieth century war between two world powers are such as to make a worker in an iron foundry turn green with envy. War has become a joke. Men have made for themselves monsters of battle which they can not face in battle.

THE REAL LOSS.

Miss Antique—Do you think one can get too old to marry?
Old Batch—No, but you can lose the faculty of picking a winner!

AS TO GOOD INDIANS.

A little story from the Dakotas puts the kibosh on an epigrammatic falsehood which, by iteration and circulation, has assumed the appearance of truth.

Two Yankton women, redskins, returning from a visit to Bow Creek, were caught in a storm on the prairies far from any habitation. It was night. To save their babies they stripped off their blankets, wrapped up the darlings and then crooned them to sleep. The copper-colored mothers were found the next morning stiff and stark in the snow.

Now, really, don't you believe that those Indians were good Indians before they became dead Indians?—Boston Globe.

POPULAR PLATFORM.

Governor-elect Dix, at a dinner at the Hotel Manhattan in New York, said of politics:

"Sneering at politics, the Goncourts once said that no party could ever lose office if it gave the people free fireworks every night and free vaudeville every day.

"But I heard of a candidate in the south who went the Goncourts one better.

"Fellow citizens," he shouted from the stump, "my platform is just this: First, no pay for any elected candidate. Second, pensions for all voters."

IS UNITARIAN MINISTER.

Rev. M. Rowena Morse is a minister of the Unitarian church, recently appointed to a charge in Chicago. She was the first woman to be graduated from the University of Jena, having demanded that she be allowed to take the course in the institution. She was at one time a teacher of science in the schools of Omaha, and is a graduate of Cornell university.

IN THE FUTURE.

Registration Officer—Where were you born?

Possible Voter—I don't know exactly. Somewhere between New York and San Francisco, though; I was born in a dirigible balloon.
